MARSHALLS MILL/ ROUND FOUNDRY

Marshalls Mill offers a place for you right in the heart of a dynamic and creative community, nestled in the historic site of the Round Foundry, formerly a specialist engineering works.

Marshalls Mill, a Grade II* Listed former Flax Mill, has undergone a major refurbishment programme, to deliver flexible open-plan floor plates that mix historic character with high quality contemporary design. Each suite is unique but many include vaulted ceilings, large window openings and full access raised flooring. On-site parking is available with each suite.

ROUND FOUNDRY MARSHALLS MILL

The Round Foundry is a successful and sought after destination where you can live, work and socialise in a sustainable community. With all the perks of the city but the intimacy of a village, you have all you need right on your doorstep.

Named as 'the coolest corner of Leeds', with 85 companies located in the area, employing around 1,800 people, this is not just a place to work and do business. Creative companies including architects, artists, designers, film-makers, games developers and web consultancies sit alongside independent cafés, pubs and restaurants, creating a diverse business neighbourhood.

Marshalls Mill has everything you would expect to find in a modern building including super-fast fibre optic broadband available to your door*, up to 1GB per second in both download and upload (that's a whole feature film in 1.5 seconds) while retaining the wealth of character and soul you would expect from one of Leeds' most important historical buildings.

* By separate agreement
