Description

16 West Street is a double fronted lock up shop which is currently being refurbished ready for occupation. In addition to the main retail area there is staff welfare provision and a back office or storage area. The unit has been stripped out since these photos were taken.

The property would suit a traditional retailer but other uses will be considered.

Nearby retailers include Elphicks, Sweaty Betty, Ruby Jones and Pullingers.

There is also an area of basement storage at the property which may be available by separate negotiation.

Location

16 West Street is located in central Farnham close to Elphicks and the Lion and Lamb Yard.

Farnham is a popular market town with a thriving retail offering in the traditional town centre. There is good road access from the A31 which connects to the A3 and the A331.

The railway station also provides good local transport links from the surrounding area and Farnham continues to enjoy an effective bus service.
