Prime Grade A Offices To Let

From 1,300 sq ft (165.37 Sq M) to 8,404 Sq Ft (780.78 Sq M)

The Building Description

25 King Street occupies a prominent position overlooking Thunderbolt Square on the edge of the historic Queen Square at the junction of King Street and Prince Street.

Queen Square is the largest Georgian square outside London providing the city centre with its finest civic open space and the location for a range of cultural events.

The Square is also one of the city's prime office locations and is home to a range of local and international companies. Queen Square is surrounded by a range of attractions that include The Old Vic Theatre, Welshback Gym and St Nicholas Market. The area is also home a range of bars, restaurants and cafés located around Queen Square and on the newly pedestrianized King Street, now one of the city's most popular destinations.

The building also benefits from easy access to the main shopping areas of Broadmead and Cabot Circus shopping centre whilst Temple Meads mainline railway station is within 15 minutes-walk.
