

James Young House
Office space West Lothian

We offer immediate entry, flexible terms, and attractive cost savings on conventional leases. Our friendly and professional staff will see to your every need so that your business receives the attention it deserves.

The office building is centrally situated within its own private grounds in a quite countryside location on the edge of the Pumpherston Golf Course.

Livingston is well positioned with good access to the main transport links serving central Scotland, many SME and large international companies chose to locate their offices here.

The Centre and McArthur Glen Shopping Centres are just minutes away within Livingston, with the Gyle Shopping Centre and Hermiston Gait Retail Park within 15min by car or a train ride away.
