Description

Fully Fitted Office To Let

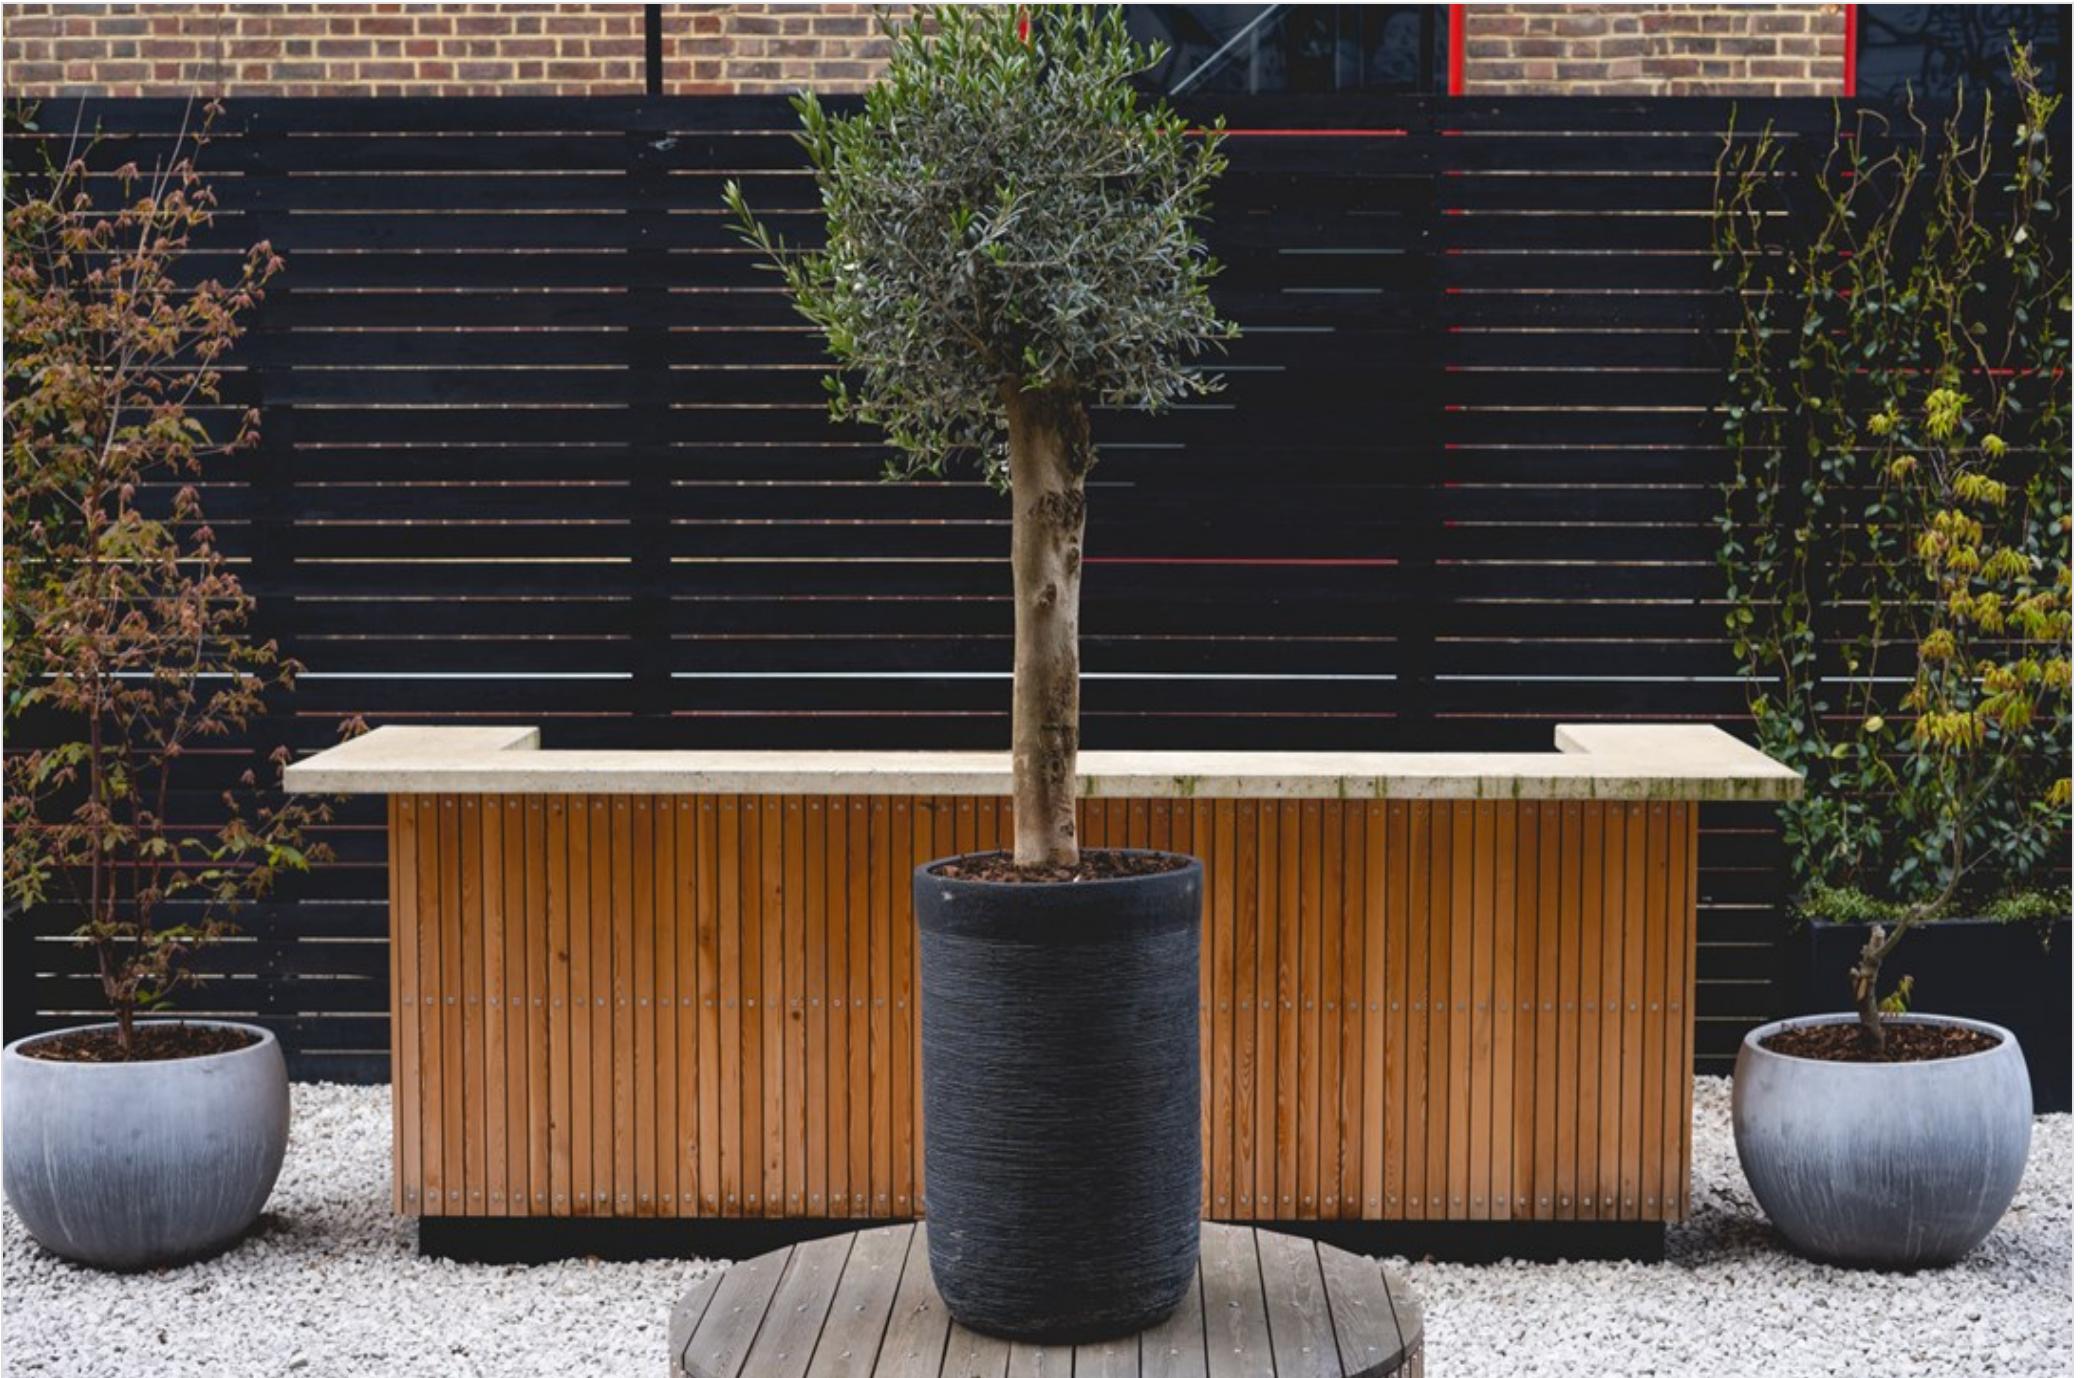

Delivered by a multi award winning developer, The Binary is fully refurbished high-quality office building that makes a bold statement, designed by Soda Studios. A smart building for smart people. A Shoreditch vibe with Southbank elan.

After acquisition the building was rebranded as The Binary embracing its history as a former cyber security and police premises. The rebrand included a mural covering the entire west façade celebrating both the history of the building and that of the local area.

The available part first floor will offer fully furnished offices, available for immediate occupation. The offices also benefit from a landscaped communal courtyard, exposed services, excellent floor to ceiling height and bike racks/showers.
