Location

Banff is a traditional county town within the Banff and Buchan area of Aberdeenshire, situated approximately 46 miles north-east of Aberdeen City, 26 miles west of Fraserburgh and 11 miles north of Turriff.

Banff lies on the main A98 Fraserburgh to Fochabers coastal road and is the northernmost settlement on the A947 road from Aberdeen and has a population of approximately 4,160 persons with a wider catchment of 11,480 persons.

Description

The subject site is situated within the south-east of the town centre and is bounded by the A98 to the south, Bridge Road to the east and Old Market Place to the north. The site is easily accessible within the town centre.

The Site

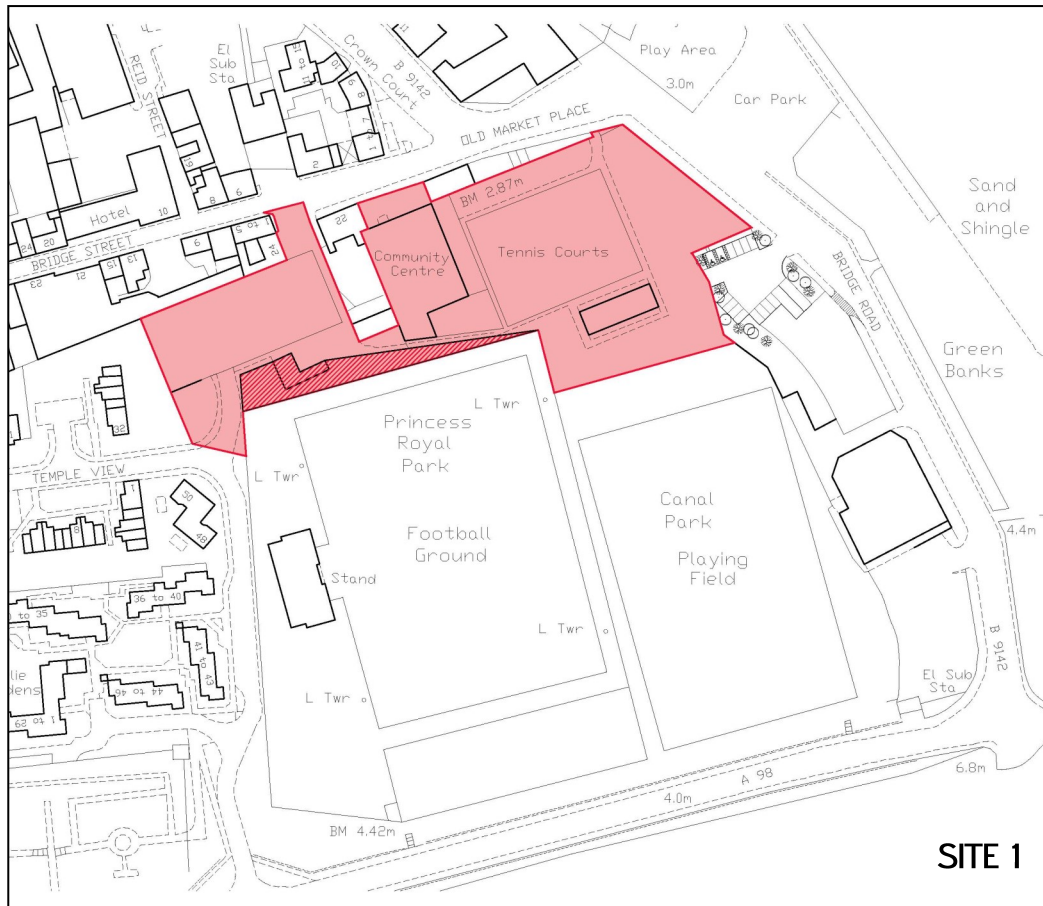

The subjects comprise a site area of approximately 2.18 hectares (5.39 acres) and has accessibility from the A98 to the south, Bridge Road to the east and Old Market Place to the north. The site is offered in part or whole and may be suitable for a variety of uses.

Planning

The subjects are situated within the designated town centre of Banff as defined within the 2017 Local Development Plan. The site lies within a Conservation Area.

Aberdeenshire Council have identified the site for consideration of retail development to benefit the town centre. Development of this type would be encouraged in order to enhance the viability and vitality of Banff town centre.

For further information on planning, please contact Aberdeenshire Council's Planning service on 01261 455811.
